RUMFORD GARAGE DEFEATS BETHEL

A small crowd witnessed the defeat of the Bethel baseball team at the hands of the Rumford Garage nine Friday. The score was 8 to 7. Despite the fact that the Bethel boys had not played for nearly two months, they made a good showing and with one or two less errors might have turned the total the other way.

FINE EXHIBITS IN NEW HALL

The Exhibition Hall is well filled with displays of farm products, canned goods, and ladies' handwork, and several interesting commercial exhibits in the space reserved for that purpose.

This is the first time that floor space has been available for this feature since the fair was revived three years ago, and it is one of the most popular departments.

LOCAL PUPILS IN MUSICAL RECITAL

Anton Eugene Mainente, well known composer, conductor, and educator, presented a pupils' recital at the Willam Bingham Gymnasium at Bethel Thursday evening, Oct. 13, at eight o'clock. Those performing were pupils of the Maine State School of Music, a Rumford, branch studio at Bethel.

Among the local pupils on the program were: Edgar Coolidge, violin solo; Henry Hastings, Jr., trumpet solo; Rodney Eames, violin; Frederic Rosalind Rowe, clarinet; violin duet by Evelyn and Gladys Akers; and a trumpet solo by Richard Young.

THE FINGER POINTS In and Around Bethel

Gordon E. Lathrop

Welcome to the Fair, Folks

Have a good time now that you're here. Smile, even if the bumps twist bridge and gate did make you wish you hadn't at so much. Look around you! Friends and neighbors everywhere! That's what makes a Maine Fair the institution that it is. Everyone you know is here, or it will seem so before you've got through telling them about your operation, how John is such a good provider, or all about Junior's first tooth.

You can forget about the depression after the guy at the ticket office has squeezed the admission fee from your pocket-book. For at this fair there is more to do and see than you'll find again for another year. Look at the horses! Can they step? You just watch them go! Some of the best there are! See what is on exhibition in the hall. Some corking fancy work there. It will give you some ideas to use of a winter's evening. Sure you can do as well, and make an exhibit yourself next time, huh? Perhaps you didn't know you could get some of the things our Bethel merchants are showing, without taking your money for a ride to some bigger place. Yes, we want you sure do learn something every day.

Hear the fakers barking away. Do you want your weight guessed? No? Bright, bashful, but stick around and see the wire guy get fooled by Fat Emma from over the river. She may give you a chocolate! Throw feather darts at the stars! Well, it is a good way to get rid of lots of money. But see how they're made. When you get home you can pluck a few feathers from your pet hen, run a darning needle through a cork, add the feathers and try it on the seat of the person's pants after he's finished a drowsy call and is on his way out. Let me know how your aim is, I'll be waiting to hear.

You know, if you are Scotch, you can get a darned good meal out of the vapors that rise from the lunch counters and hot dog stands on every side. Then listen to the broadcaster do his stuff and you'll never know you hadn't had a turkey dinner!

Yes, these Bethel boys play a good brand of ball, but remember the time you hit an easy one into Minnie's pasture and his hungry cow masticated the pellet so you made a home run? How the other team did yell, and how many cords of wood as fellers had to lug before we carried another ball. Gee, a fair does bring up memories doesn't it?

Then there was the time that you walked the floor nights setting up courage to go down to go to the fair with you that you feel the triple leap year heat of made when she said yes? Then after you got there she hooked up with Timothy and rode home in his top buggy. While you suffered the war grease off your shoes. Just between us, I know that horse didn't sweat any getting there! Oh, well, she is the Mrs. now and you wish Timothy had won her on these old mornings when you have to get up and hold the fire.

Memories? Yes. And now another fair is giving you more to remember in years to come. Can anything beat it? You tell me!

Arthur F. Wells, 34, of Wells was killed in a fatal Sunday night auto crash when he was driving west on a track.

GOULD ACADEMY WINS SECOND GAME, 37-0

MECHANIC FALLS UNABLE TO CHECK ATTACK

Gould Academy walked away to an easy victory last Saturday over Mechanic Falls. Nineteen men were used by the winners, all of whom were able to hold their own against the visitors.

The Blue and Gold scored their first touchdown early in the first period after a 55 yard march down the field. The backfield played a well balanced and nice offensive but seemed weak on tackling in the open field. The passing also was noticeably poor, only one pass, Bartlett to Daniels, was successful. All the other heaves were wild or into a guarded man's territory.

The line played a fine game on defense, after smearing the visitors' attack for his losses. Glover proved his worth at tackle by stopping play after play. Thorpe playing his first game as regular guard showed up well, and will possibly be kept at this position.

The lineup:

Daniels, N. Hale, re. le, Miller Davis, Murphy, rt. lt, Brackett Thurston, R. Carter, rg. lt, Pulsifer, Allard, Knight Glover, c. D. Strout Thorpe, McNally, lg. rg, M. Strout Glover, L. Hale, lt. rt, R. Curtis Mundt, G. Wright, le. re, Harmon Martinson, q. Campbell
Lane, rh. Bryant
Bartlett, R. Browne, th. rh, Raymond, Knight N. Brown, fb. fb, Hoyle, F. Curtis

Scores by periods—Gould 6, 12, 13, 6.

Touchdowns: Bartlett 3, N. Brown 2, Martinson 1. Point after touchdown: Martinson 1. First downs: Gould 16, Mechanic Falls 2. Referee—W. C. Gorman (Gorham). Umpire—E. Hermon (Gorham). Head linesman—J. Twaddle (Hobart). Time—Tom Brown (Bethel). Time—10, 12, 10, 12.

HERE AND THERE IN MAINE

Merlin Daggett, 16, of Sherman accidentally shot himself while hunting Monday. He was attempting to knock a porcupine from a tree stump with the butt of his gun when the gun discharged, hitting him in the stomach. His companion, Alton Moore, went for help but Daggett was dead when aid arrived.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Swan of East Bethel observed their 53rd wedding anniversary Monday. They are the parents of seven children and have 17 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Last Friday night fire destroyed a large sporting camp on Rangeley Lake owned by Henry True and known as "Main Lodge." The camp had 15 rooms. The fire is believed to have started from the fireplace.

Five boys were held by the police Monday, charged with stealing bicycles. An epidemic of bicycle thefts has been occurring in Brunswick, 20 of them having been stolen from Brunswick owners.

Commissioner George J. Stoble has ruled that native hunters are free to carry untagged birds in their hunting coats or game bags to their home or hunting camp. Commissioner Stoble's opinion is that the law requiring the tagging and display of game birds was generally intended to cover transportation by common carrier of game killed on definite hunting trips.

FILES HELP IMPROVE POSTURE

"debutante slouch" adapted by women during the straight dress era in 1916 to 1926 has left its mark, says Helen Spaulding, specialist, University of "Unfortunately," she continues, "the dress of the day disguised carriage and ugly posture underneath. Repairs the damage and requires regular and persistent effort."
An incorrect posture and carriage have existed for a considerable time. First one must learn the of normal, beautiful posture, and exercises for disciplining so that it can maintain such posture. It is often easiest to get the of the correct relation of the of the body in a prone position and to help in assuming the posture. The subject lies flat on the with the arms extended above the head and the chin pulled in toward the neck. The entire body relaxed as possible, the hips are rolled slightly, the hips are rolled by contracting the muscles and dominal muscles are pulled in until the spine is flattened to the floor. The knees are then bent while the position of the feet is retained.
In order to maintain good posture the stretched or shortened muscles must have exercises to contract or to stretch them, and these must be taken regularly and until the muscle is strong to do its work easily."

COMMENTS ON BRITISH APPLE MARKET

(An interview with Mr. Mullaney, British Vice-Consul in Portland, by W. S. Rowe, Cumberland County Agent.)
According to the latest reports from England, there is a good demand for Maine apples at the present time. Mc-Intosh, Delicious and Wealthy and Baldwin are the varieties wanted at present. Greenings are not wanted before November 15. Starks and Ben Davis, January 1. Grades U. S. Fancy and U. S. Fancy No. 1.
The British certificate is required up to November 15. After that date, no certificate is required.
Apples to be inspected at the farm by the state inspector.
Prices reported as of September 21, N. E. Gravenstein crates, $1.44 to $1.71; N. E. Wealthy crates, 1.62 to 2.10; N. E. McIntosh crates, 2.10 to 2.27.
Shipment in barrels is recommended. However, they will take boxes or crates but the latter must be strapped and this is usually done in Boston at a charge of ten cents per crate. All shipments are being sent out from Boston, special trucking rates have been secured to Boston from points at New Gloucester and Standish at 35 cents per barrel.
According to available information there is a gross charge of $2.52 per barrel. This covers the present rate of exchange, trucking to Boston, ocean rates, ten per cent tariff, wharfage, charge of auctioneer's fee, etc.
Growers are urged to ship most of their fruit prior to October 24 for on that date the first apple steamer sails.
The following are the dates of sailing from Boston: Laconic, Oct. 1; Georgia, Oct. 15; Titanic, Oct. 22; Ninian, Oct.
24; Laconic, Oct. 29.
As to the contemplated new tariff of $1.16 per barrel, Mr. Mullaney says that it has not been ratified and he doubts very much if it will be.
McIntosh in barrels brought, $6.83 in Liverpool September 20, A net of $4.81.
Says John Steele, Dixfield, "I certainly am glad I joined your Dairy Record Club. I have been very interested in looking over the production records and costs. It is the only way of knowing just what each cow is doing for me."

FARM BUREAU ANNUAL MEETING OCT. 21 - SPEAKER ANNOUNCED

Farm Bureau members in Oxford County will meet at Norway on Friday, Oct. 21, for their twelfth annual meeting. There will be a full program

STATEWIDE DRIVE FOR MORE EFFICIENT KITCHENS

Rural housewives in general and husbands in particular are being invited to attend the county kitchen meetings in their respective counties scheduled for this month and next, when a state wide Kitchen Improvement Contest will be launched.
This contest is sponsored by the Maine Farm Bureau Federation and is to be carried in 12 counties in the state. "Doing your best with what you have" or "Making the most improvements at the least expense" is the slogan of the contest.
Husbands can help their wives to win by lending their assistance with hammer, saw, and paint brush.
Complete conditions of the contest will be explained at the county meetings and the prizes to be offered will be announced.
The state home management specialist, Edna M. Cobb, will attend each one of these meetings with the county extension agents and give a brief talk on "Convenient Kitchens." The schedule of the meetings, which are to be held evenings gives the Oxford County date as November 2d.

TWO-MINUTE SERMON by REV. GEORGE HENRY

ARE YOU A CHRISTIAN?

I put this question to a man the other day and he said: "That is a hard question to answer. I am a church member, but—" After a long pause he continued: "I don't attend church very often and I suppose most people who know me have forgotten my name is on the church book. As a Christian I'm afraid I'm a pretty good slacker." I said to that chap:
"You are a man after mine own heart.
No one would come across with an open confession like that if he was not sincere at heart. You are too good a man to lose. I am going to depend on you to get busy and help me put the church in our town on the map." Today everyone in town knows that man is a Christian. He proves it daily by acts of kindness and words of cheer, and on Sunday he goes up to the House of the Lord and expresses himself in song. There are too many church members such as he was; too few such as he is.

The Maine potato crop is expected to be 3% below that of last year. The New England Crop Reporting Service reported that the New England potato crop was expected to total 47,400,000 bushels, about 11,000,000 less than last year.
